Admission process

The admission process for undergraduate degree programs in Andhra Pradesh is conducted through the Online Admission Module for Degree Colleges (OAMDC) under APSCHE. It begins with the release of the admission notification, usually in June. Candidates who have completed Intermediate (10+2) or an equivalent qualification can apply online by registering, filling out the application form, and uploading the required documents. After verification, candidates select their preferred programs and colleges, and seats are allotted based on merit, reservation, and availability. Those allotted seats must report to the college within the given time to confirm admission. Additional counseling rounds and spot admissions are conducted for vacant seats. This structured admission process ensures transparency, merit-based selection, and equal opportunities for all eligible candidates.

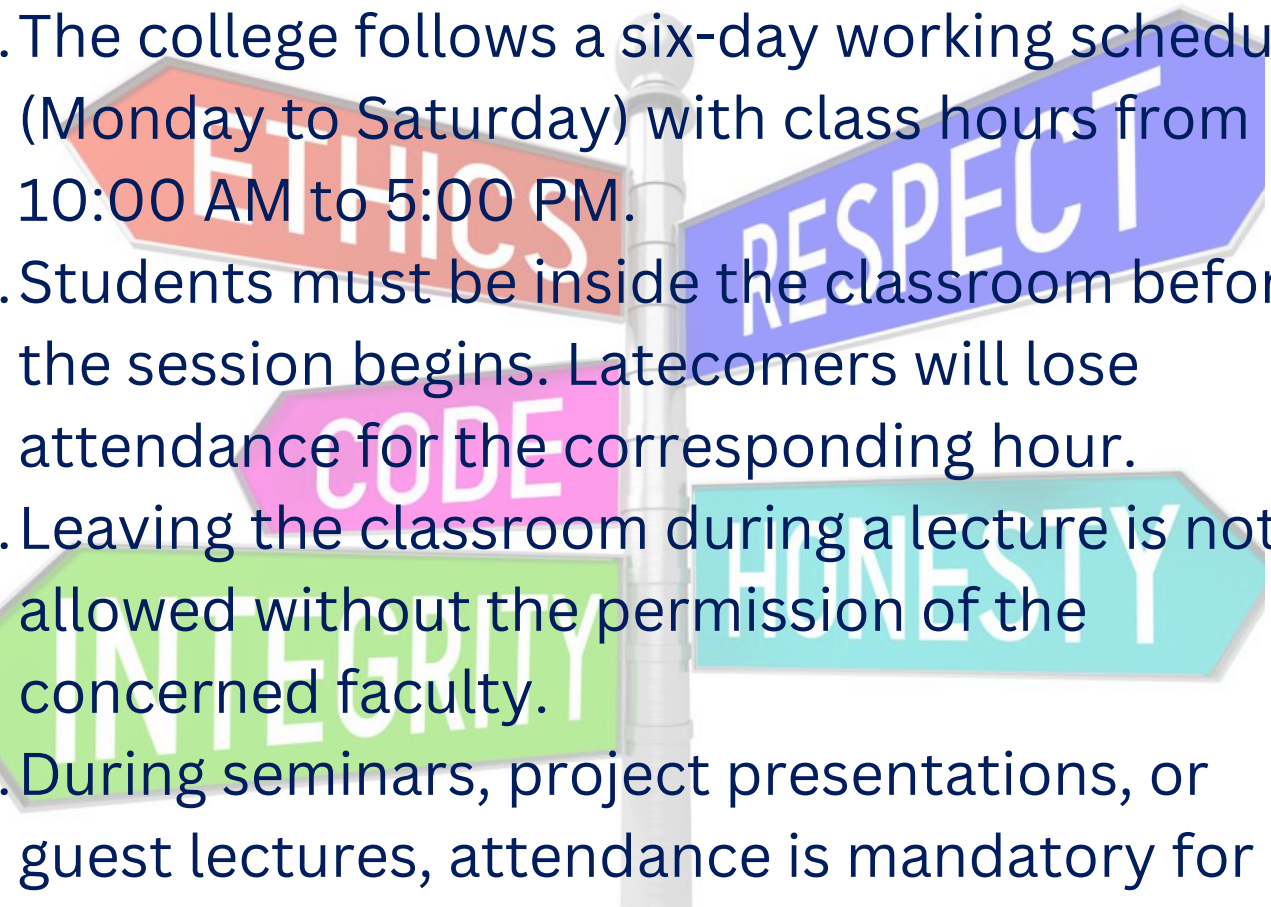

Examination

The examination system follows a comprehensive evaluation under the CBCS of Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati, combining internal assessments (25 marks) and semester-end exams (75 marks). Internal assessment includes Mid-Semester Exams (Mid-1: 20, Mid-2: 15), assignments, projects, seminars (5 marks each), and participation/attendance (5 marks), totaling 50 marks, scaled to 25. If internal marks are below 10, students must score at least 40 in the final exam. Practical and viva-voce exams are conducted by appointed examiners, ensuring a balanced assessment.
