OBJECTIVES:

To Aware the consequences and problems due to the social evils

To discuss the actual problems faced due to the dowry system

To inspire the people to stop child marriages

Activity report

From ancient days the society of India was suffering with many social evils. These evils made the life of common people in the society miserable. From 19th century onwards there were many socio reform movements occurred and inspired the society. All the socio reformers condemned the social evils in the society and explained the people that those evils were obstacles of their development.

Even after the reform movements, our society is suffering with some social evils and they become our traditions. For Example Child marriages, dowry system, Animal sacrifices etc..

Hence BA students aware the people about the child marriages and dowry system. These two are frequently occur in villages as some of the villagers were uneducated. BA students gave awareness to the people in Bandla Doddi village and inspire them to condemned the social evils.

OUT COMES :

1. Students able to understand how difficult is to inspire the people in the society.
2. Students able to explain the disadvantages of social evils to the people
3. Students faced so many questions from the people
4. Students realized that changing the society is very much difficult.
